Typical conspiracy loon. If they confirmed your loony theories then that would be proof of them. If they don't, then that's evidence of the conspiracy to suppress and THAT is the proof of them.

Face it. You're a fruit cake, Ian.

Ah, there's the Ian we all know and laugh at...

Ian, what do you smoke before you start posting? The words are all English, but the conjunction you put them in makes no sense of any kind.

Your ignorance is achieving its usual heights.

And he zooms off from those heights into Loony Land...

Tell us again about the Senators killed by anthrax, Ian...
