People seem to forget that King georgie Jr.'s Daddy had ALSO PROMISED a "Return to the Moon"...he didn't even START the process while he was in office..no plans...no 'directives'....etc.

I have been saying that for years. To quote, Chambers Encyclopedic Guide, "Space Exploration", pg. 137:

Return to the Moon

In 1989, US President George Bush gave notice that it was time for the USA to begin planning new missions to the Moon with the aim of establishing a lunar base.

Geez, how come W can't piggy-back off his dad's original plan? Maybe because there was none. So why do we feel like his son is going to do something that both have said they would do but no action has been taken? Can you say throw a bone to Texas without any other plan?

So you can't blame "Clinton" for squashing that attempt....because Daddy George NEVER made an HONEST attempt to set the plan into motion.

Same goes true for King Georgie Jr...He also wants to "Go Back to the Moon"...he's made some proposals...but where's the money going???

That fark hole of Iraq where he lied to the people of the world....but more importantly...lied to the soldiers he sent there to die. Look what happened when He told the DIPLOMATS...those beaucroatic chicken droppings who followed everything King Georgie Jr. said to do.....same with the Military Leaders...those who stood against him...were fired.

There is NO 'Master Plan' to get us back to the Moon and onto Mars before the other nations get there. Russia, China and India will be getting there before we do.

And all either Russia or China has to do to thwart ANY attempt we may want to do in that area is to tell the World back we want our US IOU'

Re: Is NASA a US "Defence Agency"?

paid in GOLD ... NOW.

That's over 2 TRILLION dollars we have outstanding in National Debt...most of it we owe to China and Russia for financing the Iraq War.

Go to the Moon? Gawd...we can't even cross the Tigres or Eurphrates Rivers without spending 1 million a day for the one bridge protection. We have MORE 'mercenaries' in Iraq than regular US troops...look it up. THAT's where our money is going. And OIL???,,,HAH...what did you expect electing two oil men....lower prices for gas???

You forget Rice and her connections to Chevron, but I digress.

Now who's behind the internet spouting truth?...ROAR !!!

You'll only confuse them.
