Idiot.

Re: SpaceX vs. Japan

That is what you call
everyone
who has a different political view than your own.

No, it's what I call idiots.

Yes, those that have a different political view than you do are deemed "idiots".

No, there are many people with different political views than I who I don't deem idiots. I reserve that term for actual, multiply demonstrated, over a period of years, idiots. Like you.

You call me 'idiot' because I continually expose you as the pompous ass that you are.

Wrong again, since I'm not a "pompous ass" and even if I were, you're much too big an idiot to demonstrate it, or much of anything else.

The demonstration is all on you. I merely point it out.

I call you an idiot for the simple reason that you are in fact an idiot, as you demonstrate here every single day, multiple times, and have been doing so for over a decade (in fact, in every post you've made in this thread). And I'm hardly the only person who thinks so, as demonstrated in s.s.h. a while ago.

Yet you keep posting. I guess that makes you an idiot too.

Re: SpaceX vs. Japan

Though I probably am somewhat idiotic myself for even continuing to converse with an idiot.

Haha, I couldn't have said it better myself, though I did above.

C'mon, tell us what you really think of Michael Moore your Flint, Michigan bretheran...
