There, I said it. Lisa is a such a cutie. She has a nice smile and her pony tail is so cute in zero-g... :)

She is hereby awarded Miss NASA 2006. Congrats. Because this is what the STS is all about: orbital beauty pageants. ;)

Miss Mission Control probably goes to Julie Payette.

Other possible categories: Miss KSC, Miss Endeavour, Miss Ice Team, Miss SSME. Oops that last one made no sense.

Wicked smart, too. But a sweet person, not at all arrogant
Lisa was in our high school class (class of 1981)

She was Lisa Caputo, back in the day..
Class valedictorian, voted "most likely to succeed"

IIRC, Lisa had been hoping/training for a place on the shuttle since the mid 1990's, if not earlier. A long time waiting, I say, Congratulations, Lisa!
