The way to stop him is to stop making the errors which he finds. You should thank him for taking the time to read your stuff. Most readers of this newsgroup just skip over your "stuff". Those of us who do so marvel at his patience in dealing with your "stuff". The usual way of dealing with "internet personalities" is to "stop feeding the troll". Unfortunately some may not recognize the content for what it is so we are thankful for the corrections even if less than happy with the traffic. On 2007-12-14 08:15:07 -0400, "Luis A. Afonso" ***

My comment

I do not care if you read me or not, it's for me indifferent.

However you surely DID THIS. And because you did I owe from you a sufficiently careful exam of the problem. Typically you DIDN T.

If it is the your way to deal with a SUBSTANTIVE LIAR, and a SUPERFICIAL unlearned person (John Smith), you, Gordon S. should be classified so. No doubt.
